Confirmation of the host institution on the successful completion of a one-week study visit

The host institution, College of Business Administration of Latvia, hereby confirms the successful completion of a one-week study visit of Ivan Gjorgjievski, starting on April 17th.

Ivan has joined the international staff training days "Distance education - enabling future excellence today" where he actively participated and presented his work in the systems thinking during the conference activities. Furthermore, Ivan took part in the full agenda where plenty of case studies were covered, regarding the contemporary trends in distance learning and future challenges. During the international conference held on 20th April, Ivan presented his work titled "Systems thinking in the modern organization". As an added benefit for this study visit, he also joined the several networking events, considering future collaborations and partnerships with other participants.

We sign this confirmation letter to serve Ivan Gjorgjievski as part of his PhD study obligations.
